

Project Name	Development of Study for Assessment of Historical Pollution Caused by the Oil Refinery OKTA, Skopje
Start–End	November 2009–December 2011
Project Value	165.000 EUR
Slovenian Funding	140.000 EUR
Recipient Country/ Donation Recipient	North Macedonia / Ministry of Environment and Spatial Planning
Project Contractor	Hidroinženiring d.o.o. Ljubljana in Riko d.o.o. Ljubljana
CRS CODE	CRS CODE 41010
Project Description	The overall objective of the project was the technical assistance in the elaboration of the rehabilitation plan of industrial environmental burden of the refinery OKTA Skopje in an environmentally and financially acceptable manner for the production facility, country and for the local community. The results of the study allow the authorities to plan and implement the measures that will reduce the impact of emissions from the refinery on the agricultural land and crops.
Project Phase	Project is concluded.