ABOUT US

50+ Years of Global Impact

Over 50 years, the Centre for International Cooperation and Development (CMSR) has been actively strengthening the reputation of the Republic of Slovenia—as a partner in solidarity, sustainability, and innovation.

Founded by the Republic of Slovenia and SID Bank (Slovenian Export and Development Bank), CMSR is an independent, non-profit organization focused on international development, economic research, and global cooperation, led by a Managing Director and governed by the CMSR Council.

Since 2007, CMSR has also been a key player in enabling Slovenia to:

- Fulfill its international development commitments as a provider of the technical and operational part of the bilateral international development cooperation of the Republic of Slovenia in accordance with the International Development Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid of the Republic of Slovenia Act.
- Strengthen economic ties with partner countries.
- Promote sustainable development worldwide.

OUR MISSION & VISION

Strengthening Slovenia's Global Footprint. Empowering Development. Driving Innovation.

CMSR is Slovenia's gateway to the world—connecting expertise, innovation, and partnerships through development projects across:

- The Western Balkans
- The European Neighbourhood
- Sub-Saharan Africa

Projects, co-financed by the Government of the Republic of Slovenia, promote clean energy, digital solutions, and sustainable water use—addressing climate change, reducing inequality, and empowering communities. By sharing Slovenian expertise, we support global development and boost Slovenia's international presence.

SLOVENIAN KNOW-HOW, GLOBAL SOLUTIONS

Over 130 development projects co-financed by Slovenia in:

Albania • Belarus • Bosnia and Herzegovina • Georgia • India • Kenya • Kosovo • Moldova • Montenegro • North Macedonia • Serbia • Uganda • Ukraine

Through its projects, CMSR demonstrates that Slovenia can make a meaningful contribution to solving global challenges. CMSR is currently active in more than ten development projects across Europe and Africa, where it promotes Slovenian expertise and innovation.

The conditions for co-financing projects of international development cooperation are:

- The recipient being a public entity;
- Compliance of the project with the resolution, strategic documents and substantive starting points of international development cooperation of the Republic of Slovenia;
- Contributing to the eradication of poverty, the reduction of inequalities or the promotion of sustainable development in a partner country or region as fundamental objectives of international development cooperation;
- Compliance of the project with the demonstrated needs of the partner country (Letter of support for the project from the relevant government ministry);
- Compliance with the obligations under the contract for the co-financing of projects of international development cooperation concluded by the recipient with CMSR (if any contracts were concluded);
- That the project does not contribute to the increased use of fossil fuels.

Invitation for submission of development project proposals

Project proposals need to be prepared using the digital Project Proposal Form available at <https://www.cmsr.si/en/invitation-for-submission/>

The selection procedure and evaluation of the projects will be carried out according to the CMSR Manual for the Implementation of International Development Cooperation Projects.

STEPS:

- 1. Fill out the digital Project proposal Form in English and submit it for review.
- 2. CMSR reviews the proposal and requests additional information, if necessary.
- 3. Supplement the Project Proposal Form if necessary and submit the final version.
- 4. CMSR evaluates the Project Proposal and notifies the potential donation recipient.

CMSR is accepting project proposals that are of strategic importance for the Slovenian development cooperation.
